The State of Texas, in the County Court of Tarrant County, For Civil Cases, Term.

To the Sheriff or Any Constable of Tarrant County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded, That, by making Publication of this Citation in some newspaper published in the County of Tarrant, four weeks previous to the return day hereof, you summon R. P. Richardson, whose residence is unknown, to be and appear before the County Court of Tarrant County, for Civil Cases, to be holden in and for the County of Tarrant, at the Court House thereof, in the City of Fort Worth, on the first Monday in September A. D. 1921, the same being the 5th day of September A. D. 1921. File Number being 19320, then and there to answer the petition of Fort Worth Paper Company, a corporation, filed in said Court, on the 18th day of July A. D. 1921, against the said R. P. Richardson, and alleging in substance as follows, to-wit:

That heretofore, to-wit: On or about the 15th day of June, 1921, defendant, who was doing business under the firm name of Utopia Confectionery & Bakery in Breckenridge, Stephens County, Texas, made, executed and delivered to plaintiff his six certain promissory notes in the principal sum of $50.00 each, dated June 15th, 1921, and payable to the order of plaintiff at Fort Worth, Texas, thirty, sixty, ninety, one hundred twenty, one hundred fifty and one hundred eighty days after date respectively, with interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum.

To secure payment of said notes the defendant executed a chattel mortgage on one Dodge automobile, commercial body, located in Breckenridge, Stephens County, Texas. That it was the agreement in the event defendant failed to pay one or more of said notes at maturity would, at plaintiff's election, cause the remainder of said notes to become due and payable. That the first note of said series is past due and unpaid, and plaintiff has elected to declare all of said notes due and payable in accordance with the terms of said mortgage. That the total amount of indebtedness, including principal and interest is $402.00.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays for citation by publication, the whereabouts of defendant being at this time unknown to plaintiff, that upon final hearing hereof he have judgment for his debt, together with interest and costs of suit, foreclosure of chattel mortgage, and for such other relief, special and general, in law and in equity, to which it may be justly entitled.

Herein Fail Not, but have you then and there, on the 5th day of September A. D. 1921, before said Court this Writ, with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same.

Witness, Bart Mynatt, Clerk of the County Court of Tarrant County, for Civil Cases.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, in Fort Worth, this 20th day of July A. D. 1921.
